

2025: 12 months of growing tech skills in Ireland

The below infographic celebrates many of the achievements that have defined our path through 2025. Each one represents a unique facet of our commitment to driving technological excellence and empowering professionals in the tech sector.

First

ever Master's in Sustainable Cloud Computing launched in Ireland

Award Winning

Academic and Industry Support, acknowledged by the Research Ireland Centre for Research Training in Foundations of Data Science (CRT)

180+

professionals started their journey to become Masters of AI future intech

7th

cohort started

1,500+

unemployed learners upskilled

My goal is to gain clarity on what true leadership really entails and to equip myself to fostering innovation in the workplace. I want to leave the programme with the confidence and capability to drive meaningful change in my professional environment.

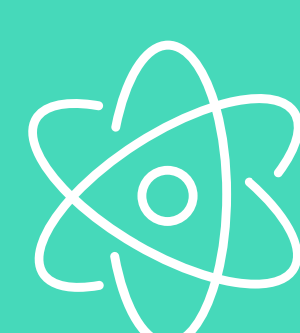

Tushar Gawande,
AI & Data Engineering Manager, Healthcare services

Class of 2027
MSc in Leadership, Innovation and Technology

Founding Partner

national industry working group for Quantum

€1.45m+

invested by companies in training through Technology Ireland ICT Skillnet

960+

companies selected Technology Ireland ICT Skillnet as a strategic training partner

Web3 has the potential to change how we work, how we play, and how we interact with vital services, for the betterment of all.

Una Fitzpatrick,
Director, Technology Ireland, speaking on the launch of the Industry Insights Report on Web3

2,400+

individual learners engaged in training with Technology Ireland ICT Skillnet

Looking ahead to our

20th Anniversary

30+

network & learn events, bringing professionals together to connect and innovate

